Notes From Atlanta

 Saturday, February 08, 2003

Why didn't they leave a forwarding address?

NY Times: Maureen Dowd, 2/9/2003

Mr. Bush's presidency came into focus when he made his bullhorn vow to get "the people who knocked these buildings down." But we're not getting the creeps who knocked the buildings down. We're getting the creeps whose address we know.

Another nude war protest

BBC News: Australians bare all in anti-war protest.

Somebody probably needs to keep a record of all these protests. Might as well be me! So let me introduce the Nude War Protest Archive.

No Bush! Or maybe No, Bush!

Yet another nude women protest, or political statement, against the war. This time in Central Park New York, in the snow. Except for the killing and stuff, this war talk seems to bring out the best in people!
